CAUTIONARY NOTICE

Members of the public are advised that under the Patents Act (Cap 221) (“the Act”), the right to practise in patent matters in Singapore (including drafting patent specifications, amending patent applications, and filing applications for others) and to use any name or other description which contains the words “patent agents” is restricted to those who have in force practising certificates and are on the Register of Patent Agents in Singapore.

It has been drawn to our attention that there are persons, organizations and incorporated bodies who hold themselves out and carry on the business, practice or act as patent agents in Singapore when they do not have in force practising certificates and are not on the Register of Patent Agents. Please be informed that such persons, organizations and bodies risk prosecution under the Act and are liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $5,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or to both.

You are advised to only consult patent professionals who have in force a valid practicing certificate and who are on the Register of Patent Agents.
